Europe & North Africa

INFINITE IN ITS APPEAL, EUROPE IS AN ENTICING MIX OF CELEBRATED CITIES, SUN-SOAKED MEDITERRANEAN RESORTS AND BUCOLIC COUNTRYSIDE, WHILE NORTH AFRICA BRINGS A HINT OF EXOTIC MYSTIQUE.

Spain

An irresistible spirit runs through Spain from the luxury of its high end resorts to flamboyant flamenco fiestas and the Moorish magnificence of Andalucía. Mallorca is a revelation, with its beautiful beaches and quaint towns or slip away to the Canary Islands to be cosseted in year round warmth.

Italy

The majestic Alps and lakes of the north, the soft green hills of Tuscany, the magical Bay of Naples, the brooding presence of Etna and Vesuvius...Italy's attractions are legion. Delve into boisterous cities where the buzzing of Vespas provides the backing soundtrack, or escape to a romantic spa for a little indulgent pampering.

France & Monaco

From the sun-drenched beaches of the Riviera to the high rolling casinos of Monte Carlo and the catwalk-chic of Paris, France offers a panoply of diverse holiday experiences. It's a place to sip Champagne by yacht-dotted harbours, feast on classic haute cuisine or simply spread out a picnic on a pine cloaked Provençal hillside and soak up the joie de vivre.

Cyprus

The third largest of the Mediterranean islands is remarkably intimate, a welcoming place of myth and legend, where Aphrodite is said to have risen from the sea. It's an island of many facets, peppered with monasteries and high-end beach resorts. A place to soothe the soul.

Greece

In the achingly blue Aegean and Ionian Seas 6,000 islands lie scattered, many uninhabited, the rest offering an intoxicating mix of pastoral tranquillity and beachfront chic. Share a little gossip in a 'kafeneia' – life is effortless and easy paced, but Athens calls, and the view of the sun sinking behind the Parthenon stays forever in the mind.

Portugal & Madeira

Famed for its ravishing beaches, tasty cuisine and strong cultural heritage, Portugal is a paradise for all ages and interests. Explore enchanting fishing villages such as Sagres with its iconic fortress and admire the beautiful coastline and subtropical splendour of friendly Madeira.

Turkey

Summer lasts as long as eight months in some parts of this entrancing country, where a spectacular shoreline is laced with beaches, bays, coves and peninsulas. Inland lie majestic mountains, valleys, lakes and grottoes, and the fabulous remains of the many ancient civilisations nurtured by the soils of Anatolia.

Croatia & Montenegro

Dubrovnik, 'pearl of the Adriatic', the definitive Croatian attraction. Climb the medieval ramparts for stupendous views over the old town with its time-worn marble streets and wealth of Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque buildings. Montenegro boasts the walled city of Kotor, Venetian-built Budva and a profusion of lakes and monasteries.

Morocco

To be Morocco bound is to enjoy the anticipation of a thousand spellbinding experiences. Immerse yourself in the tumultuous life of Marrakech with its snake charmers and piles of aromatic spices; trek through tiny Berber villages or head to the coast where the sea winds cool the sandy beaches.

Villa Living

Step into your own private enclave away from the world and its routines. Villa living spells freedom of the most intimate and luxurious kind, where privacy is paramount and service discreet. This is where family and friends can socialise and relax together, no-one to disturb, no-one to impose upon your day, children free to play as they please and everyone's tastes catered for perfectly by experienced housekeepers, cooks and butlers. An exclusive villa can provide the perfect environment for a special celebration or an intimate wedding. Choose from an inland retreat or a cliff top sanctuary with access to secluded coves...a hilltop hideaway or even a villa on your own private island. Alternatively if you are seeking the privacy and space of a villa whilst enjoying the comforts of a luxury hotel such as children's clubs, spas and restaurants then a villa resort may be just what you are looking for.

Our consultants will be happy to help locate the ideal destination whether it is a private home or a villa with all the amenities of a full service resort – please call or visit www.carrier.co.uk.

Cruising & Yachting

Sail in style on board a Silversea or Regent Seven Seas cruise liner or an exclusive SeaDream mega-yacht. Our carefully-selected cruise partners offer an extensive range of itineraries throughout Europe taking in glittering riviera's and iconic cities steeped in history, from the glamour of Monte Carlo, to the romance of Florence and the dramatic coastline and bustling ports of Croatia and Montenegro to name a few. Alternatively charter your own private yacht, experienced crews will customise itineraries giving you the freedom to plan your days, dropping anchor at will and swimming ashore to feast on a picnic of fresh seafood on a pristine beach only accessible by boat. Allow us to recommend yachts for couples, friends travelling together or families with older children who will undoubtedly enjoy the plethora of watersports available. River cruising is becoming ever more popular, Belmond Afloat in France allows you to experience some of France's finest landscapes and medieval villages at a different pace and in consummate style.

ITALY, FRANCE, MONACO, SPAIN

Cook the Italian Way

Forget flashy techniques and exotic spices – Italian cuisine is all about cooking quality local ingredients well. It's the tradition that Italians know best, and getting to know its secrets makes a memorable holiday experience. Two that stand out for sheer excellence are the Buono Buonissimo! cooking school at Villa San Michele near Florence and the Gritti Epicurean School in Venice. In just a short time, the Buono Buonissimo! course has taken the foodie world by storm, with Executive Chef Attilio Di Fabrizio revealing the glories of Tuscan cuisine in small hands-on classes. The Young Chefs Academy caters for children from six to fourteen years of age. Courses at The Gritti Epicurean School often include a visit to the ancient Rialto market to select seasonal ingredients for typical Venetian recipes, followed by an aperitivo at a local bacaro before the lesson. Hugely experienced Executive Chef Daniele Turco presides over the proceedings.

Wine Tours

Being able to combine the wonderful landscapes of Provence and Tuscany with fascinating insights into the world of wine production is an oenophile's dream. Here is just a selection of our top class wine tours, each suffused with rich wine growing tradition. In the gentle hills of the Chianti region experiences range from tours of intimate, family-run estates such as Poggio Amorelli to the decidedly medieval flavour of Castello di Volpaia, involving underground passages and wine cellars set within former churches. There are opportunities to dine in gourmet style during many of the visits – the Michelin-starred Osteri di Passignano on the Badia di Passignano estate meriting particular mention. Lovers of Brunello won't want to miss the tutored wine tastings at Casanova di Neri. Meanwhile, beyond the lavender fields and olive groves of Provence lie unforgettable experiences such as the 'Cru Classé' of Chateau Sainte Roseline and the phenomenal rosés of Chateau d'Esclans where consulting oenologist Patrick Leon works with the legendary Sacha Lichine to create oak barrel-fermented rosés such as the Garrus – reputedly the world's priciest.

Privileged Access

Quite understandably, the world's greatest cultural showpieces attract visitors in their droves. Imagine then the immense privilege of being able to have these places all to yourself, visiting at specially arranged times with your own expert guides. In the Vatican, that means savouring the delights of the many priceless antiquities, maps and tapestries in private, visiting Raphael's Rooms and roaming through centuries of treasures from Egyptian to Etrurian, Renaissance to Baroque. Gaze in crowd-free peace and silence upon Michelangelo's frescoes in the Sistine Chapel, including his most cherished works – The Creation of Adam and The Last Judgement.

The Apostolic Palace awaits with a private viewing of areas normally out of bounds to visitors, entering the Vatican State through a special entrance attended by Swiss Guards. Visit the usually inaccessible Sala Ducale and Sala Regia, taking the rare opportunity to admire two of Michelangelo's late frescoes in the Pauline Chapel and even lingering awhile in the Room of Tears where the newly-elected Pope retreats in prayer. At the Colosseum you can walk in the footsteps of gladiators, accessing behind-the-scenes tunnels, cells, animal pens and passages, taking in basilicas, temples and triumphal arches in the company of outstanding art historians. A wonderful chance to sense the thrill, fear, dread and anticipation that the gladiators must have felt before they entered the baying arena. The adrenalin also flows at Siena's famous Palio as the horses and their riders' race at break-neck speed around the historic Piazza del Campo – yet for many visitors, the only view is of the spectator in front. With Carrier, privileged access is assured, viewing the parades and drama from a private terrace overlooking the piazza, or if you prefer to be in the middle of the action we can arrange tickets for the boxes or on the terraces of the buildings that surround it. Races take place in July and August.

Monaco Grand Prix

Since that glorious inaugural day in 1929 when Britain's William Grover-Williams sped to victory in his Bugatti, the Monaco Grand Prix has maintained its iconic status as the world's most glamorous motor racing event. We are proud to be able to offer a choice of exclusive race viewing options, enhanced by deluxe accommodation in Nice or Monaco, helicopter or private chauffeur transfers and VIP access to the best F1 after-parties. Few trackside vantage points can match that of the Ermano Palace 7th Floor Suite, with its birds-eye view of 70% of the circuit including the first turning and clear line of sight from the tunnel exit through to Rascasse. Alternatively, watch the race unfold from the lavish comfort of a tri-deck super yacht, enjoying superb cuisine and an open bar, plus an invitation to an exclusive on board party on the Friday. For the best of both worlds, take a VIP Combo Package to spend a Champagne Saturday on the yacht, moving to the Ermano Palace for Sunday's action.

Year-Round Whale Watching

To see a pod of dolphins carving through the water, or witness the giant slap of a whale's fluke is one of life's most thrilling experiences, and you don't have to travel far to enjoy the privilege. The warm waters off the south-west coast of Tenerife are renowned for their populations of whale and dolphin, with as many as twenty four species migrating through the food-rich waters at different times of year. Sightings are virtually guaranteed and can include bottlenose dolphins, pilot whales, sperm whales, minke and killer whales, together with many kinds of sea birds, turtles, sharks and rays. Leave all the arrangements to Carrier for a truly unforgettable trip.

Spain /

IMMERSE YOURSELF IN THE TIMELESS CHARM OF THIS PASSIONATE LAND, EPITOMISED BY ITS RICH CULTURE AND FABULOUS CUISINE – ISLAND HIDEAWAYS, CHIC BEACHFRONT ENCLAVES AND EXUBERANT CITIES.

A riot of colour welcomes the visitor to Spain. If passions run higher here today as a result of the Arab and Moorish influences, so too is the food fiercer, the wine more intense and the sense of drama stronger, manifesting itself most vividly in the flamboyancy of flamenco. Amidst the white-washed walls of Andalucía, festivals seem to be forever in full swing, accompanied by the strumming of acoustic guitars and dancers moving spectacularly in the moonlight. Glorious countryside and majestic mountains contrast with the stylish coastline of Estepona and Puerto Banus, where marinas overflow with luxurious yachts. In Barcelona, the streets bustle with hip bars and boutique hotels, the exuberance pulsating all around. In Gran Canaria, golden sand dunes are reminiscent of Egyptian deserts, whilst in Tenerife, African-tinged coastal villages exude relaxation. The interior is an unspoilt sub-tropical wilderness of volcanic rock formations, fields of wildflowers, and pine forest bordering snow-capped Mount Teide. Mallorca is a further explosion of scents and colour – sweet smelling citrus groves blossom and cobbled towns are speckled between craggy mountains. In Palma, ancient olive trees and stone-walled gardens are hidden against a backdrop of stylish boutiques and designer bars. Across the water the “white island” of Ibiza fizzles with culture and nightlife, where beautiful beaches are complimented by tranquil villages. Seductive and sultry, Spain speaks to the soul in a thousand different ways.

Best Experiences

- * Time your visit to Tenerife to coincide with the Santa Cruz festival, the largest in Europe
- * Take the vintage narrow gauge train from Palma to Soller passing through some of the most beautiful scenery on the island
- * Be swept up by the passion of the Flamenco in Andalucía
- * Enjoy a walking tour of Barri Gòtic (Gothic Quarter) in Barcelona and discover its ancient history

When To Go

Mainland Spain's climate varies from temperate in the north to dry and hot in the south. Spring and autumn are pleasant and warm whereas July and August are hot, particularly inland. In Mallorca and Ibiza, sunshine and warm temperatures are the norm from April to October with the cooling influence of the sea preventing excessive temperatures during the peak summer months, winters are mild and dry with occasional showers. The Canary Islands are year round destinations, the climate being consistently warm for most of the year with July and August being hot.

Our Pricing

Our pricing aims to give an indication of the prices in low and high season. Low season for the Canary Islands is generally between the months of May to June and September; high season is from October to April and July to August. In mainland Spain and the Balearic Islands low season is from October to May, with high season from June to September. Prices are based on 2 sharing (unless otherwise indicated) and include return economy flights from London. Regional departures, child prices and single supplements are available on request.

Italy /

INSPIRED BY TWO THOUSAND YEARS OF HISTORY, ITALY'S LEGENDARY 'DOLCE VITA' IS MORE ALIVE THAN EVER, INFUSING ITS ART-FILLED CITIES, WINE-RICH COUNTRYSIDE AND JET SET RESORTS.

A landscape of endless variety forms the backdrop to 'Il Bel Paese' and its colourful history; the rumbling volcano of Mount Etna in Sicily, the white-washed conical 'trulli' of Puglia, the breathtaking coastline that is Amalfi and the sun-dappled beaches of Sardinia. Sleek gondolas drifting ethereally along the Grand Canal and a labyrinth of narrow alleys and open squares characterise inimitable Venice. Its peace contrasts with the buzz of Rome; the exuberant rush of Vespas forms a chaotic soundtrack to the city's wonders. Here history is preserved in the dramatic Colosseum, where mighty gladiators once sparred before immense crowds. Tuscany beckons with halcyon days filled with long, alfresco lunches and the exuberant flow of fine Chianti. Vineyards and patches of bright sunflowers skirt the lower slopes of the hills and inundate the mist-hazed valleys resting between breathtaking vistas. Renaissance opulence combine in Florence; its cobbled streets and animated piazas dressed with unmistakeable Italian flair. Moving south, the sweeping Amalfi Coast seems to surge triumphantly from a shimmering blue sea. Positano clings to the vertiginous cliffside, speckled with lemon groves, a montage of pastel coloured buildings and mosaic-covered domes. The Mediterranean islands possess the reputation as a playground for the glitterati with their sophistication and style. This is the Italy of quintessential glamour – La Dolce Vita prevails.

Best Experiences

- * Immerse yourself in the magical atmosphere of the Venice Carnival, which takes place every year just before Lent
- * Take a boat trip from the Marine Grande to Capri's La Grotta Azzurra (Blue Grotto)
- * Climb to the top of the Duomo for a bird's eye view of the beautiful city of Florence
- * Hike in the Etna National Park home to spectacular Mount Etna – one of the most active volcanoes in the world

When To Go

Italy is a year-round destination especially for city breaks, with a largely temperate climate with regional variations. Summers are hot especially from Rome southwards, whilst spring and autumn are mild. Winter in the south is warmer and drier than in the north and central areas which can be much colder with snow falls in the mountainous regions.

Our Pricing

Our pricing aims to give an indication of the prices in low and high season. Low season for Italy is generally between the months of October to April, high season is from June to September except in the cities where high season tends to be spring and autumn. Prices are based on 2 sharing (unless otherwise indicated) and include return economy flights from London. Regional departures, child prices and single supplements are available on request.

Venice

Rising mirage-like from the lagoon, labyrinthine Venice is a city of living art, from the glorious architecture of Piazza San Marco to the gothic façade of St Mark's Basilica and the imposing Doge's Palace. Take a launch to the island of Murano, famed for its glassware. Drift on a gondola past evocative landmarks such as the Rialto Bridge and the Bridge of Sighs. Highlights to time your visit with are the Venice Carnival and Venice Film Festival.

Florence

Cradle of the Renaissance, Florence captivates with its magnificent architecture and world-renowned art – in the Uffizi alone stand Michelangelo's David, Giotto frescoes and works by Da Vinci. The city boasts unforgettable sights – the marbled Cattedrale di Santa Maria del Fiore, medieval Ponte Vecchio and the Piazza della Signoria to name but a few.

Rome

Reflecting the glories of one of the greatest empires, the Eternal City mixes a proud history with a buzzing aperitivo scene. The astonishing sights are never ending – take a private tour of the famous Colosseum, linger amongst the architectural remains of the Roman Forum. The Sistine Chapel and the Raphael Rooms of the Vatican are a must see, with the Basilica of St. Peter offering beguiling views from its dome.

Amalfi Coast and Capri

Few stretches of coastline compare with the rugged cliffs and terraced lemon groves of Amalfi. In Positano, all pastel colours and winding streets, savour world class cuisine, shop in chic boutiques and visit the black Madonna inside the domed Church of Santa Maria Assunta. Capri is the very essence of romance with its upmarket hangouts, ancient churches, famous sea caves and the eight hundred Phoenician Steps which connect Anacapri to the sea.

Sicily

Sun-soaked Sicily offers an exceptional mix of attractions, from the lava fields of brooding Mount Etna – the summit accessible by cable car and four wheel drive – to walking amongst the gods in Agrigento's

Valley of the Temples. From scenic Taormina with its winding shopping streets, medieval buildings, bars and restaurants, the volcano views are spectacular, as is the town's Greek theatre where theatrical and musical performances are an unforgettable experience.

Just fifteen minutes by courtesy shuttle service to central Florence yet a world away from its teeming bustle, this splendidly grand Belmond hotel commands captivating city views from its hillside setting in Fiesole. The colonnaded façade was designed by none other than Michelangelo, elegant rooms and suites are individually styled, many retaining original features. Garden Suites lie within the lush grounds, while for added luxury the Limonaia Suite is located in the convent's former orangerie and features its own private heated plunge pool and natural water spring. Dine alfresco to the accompaniment of more wonderful vistas in La Loggia or experience the refined ambience of the vaulted Cloister restaurant.

An open air heated swimming pool provides a quiet spot to relax. Children will enjoy the array of activities on offer at the Smile Club. The renowned Buono Buonissimo! Cookery School offers courses specialising in Italian dishes, with small classes ensuring devoted personal attention.

This exclusive year-round Puglian retreat combines traditional lines with contemporary luxury; white-washed masserias and a central piazza characterise this beautiful property. Built in the style of an authentic Apulian village dotted with ancient olive trees, it borders the 18-hole championship San Domenico golf course. Expansive grounds reveal three outdoor swimming pools, one indoor pool and an array of accommodation. In addition to elegant and contemporary rooms in the hotel, there are spacious townhouses, most with Arabian gardens and private rooftop terraces proffering views towards the Adriatic Sea. Three bedroom villas, tastefully furnished in a palette of neutral tones, boast expansive living areas, wraparound balconies with private pool and garden. Dining choices range from the sophistication of Due Camini to the delicious grilled fish of Pescheria da Vito, directly on the beach.

The Vair Spa is an oasis of rejuvenation with twelve treatment rooms, fitness centre, sauna and steam bath. Activities include a cookery school, tennis academy, bicycles, two beach clubs, watersports, fishing trips, boat excursions and more. Children will appreciate the Trullalleri kids' club and the Marinai and Tarantari Teen's Clubs.

Puglia / Apulian Masserias

The masserias of Puglia are fast becoming the destination of choice for aficionados of Italian holidaymaking. Rustic and charming, they give an authentic taste of life on a working farm – Torre Coccaro and Torre Maizza being part of an extensive estate overlooking the sea. Five hundred metres apart, the boutique properties exude traditional Apulian charm. Whilst sharing a private sandy beach club, restaurant and bar facilities and a mini club for children, they each have their own private spa and outdoor pool. At the centre of the estate lie an organic farm and a fruit orchard that's perfect for tranquil escape, its ancient colonnade hung with grapes that can be picked as you pass. Diverse recreations include the Coccaro Beach Club, golf on the estate's own course and cookery lessons featuring visits to local markets.

France /

SAINT-TROPEZ GLAMOUR OR PARISIAN CHIC, PROVENÇAL SIMPLICITY OR MONACO GLITZ – LA BELLE FRANCE OFFERS A DEGUSTATION OF CULTURAL AND CULINARY DELIGHTS.

Strung out between beach and mountain along the slender curve of the corniche, the towns and villages of the Côte d'Azur and the exclusive principality of Monaco have never lost their iridescence or allure. The historic hilltop village of Mougins nestles above Cannes, cloaked by forests of pine, olive and cypress trees; its beauty once a persuasive muse for Picasso and Cocteau. Village squares bustle with outdoor life, characterised by chattering locals deftly rolling boules along sandy pitches. Heady scents of lavender imbue Provençal villages, aromas of café au lait and freshly baked croissants fill the air whilst the simple flavours of a world-renowned cuisine are there to be savoured. Eze perches precipitously above the crystalline sea whilst further along the coast, the sophisticated enclave of Saint-Tropez and the irresistible chic of Monte Carlo await. Here, the harbour is dotted with luxuriant yachts and the streets are dressed with designer boutiques and opulent casinos. Cannes is star-lit each May with the annual Film Festival, Nice's Mardi Gras is awash with colour and Monaco hosts the glamorous Grand Prix. Paris, as ever, exerts its magnetic appeal, drawing the culture seeker to its array of world-famous attractions. Delve into the art collections of the Louvre, discover the treasures of Versailles and splash out in the fashion house boutiques. Alluring and captivating, France is an eternal love affair.

Best Experiences

- * For oenophiles visit one of the numerous wine regions, Bordeaux, Burgundy or Côtes du Rhône to name a few
- * Sip a cocktail at the infamous Café de Paris in Casino Square surrounded by the buzz of Monaco
- * Visit the Fragonard Parfumeur in Grasse which dates back to 1782
- * Explore the numerous art galleries in Mougins, where Pablo Picasso spent the last fifteen years of his life and had his final workshop

When To Go

The southern regions of France and the Côte d'Azur enjoy a typical Mediterranean climate with hot dry summers with little rainfall, whilst the northern region of France has a temperate climate with warm summers and cold winters. May, June and September are good months to avoid the crowds.

Our Pricing

Our pricing aims to give an indication of the prices in low and high season. Low season for France is generally between the months of November to April, high season runs from May to October. Prices are based on 2 sharing (unless otherwise indicated) and include return economy flights from London. Regional departures, child prices and single supplements are available on request.

There are few settings lovelier than this hilltop retreat in the picturesque village of Mougins, immediately above Cannes and commanding unsurpassed views of the foothills of the Alps. Set in ten acres of shady grounds it offers individually decorated rooms, each a masterpiece of interior design, which are split between Le Mas – a renovated eighteenth century farmhouse – La Bastide and La Villa

Candille, which houses six spacious suites, each with an enchanting terrace. In addition to relishing the views, many travel miles to savour the sumptuous culinary creations of David Chauvac in the Michelin-starred Le Candille restaurant, while in summer La Pergola restaurant, with its attached swimming pool, opens for lunch and dinner.

The hotel has three swimming pools, a seasonal poolside bar and restaurant – perfect for a dip and refreshments before surrendering mind and body to the pleasures of spa treatments by ESPA. A trip into medieval Mougins, where Picasso spent the last years of his life, is always a delight.

Lisbon by Sidecar

You haven't seen Lisbon until you've seen it from the unique perspective of travelling in the sidecar of a motorcycle. The narrowest of cobbled streets become accessible as you tour the medieval maze of the Alfama quarter, inspiration of many a Fado lament, or sweep uphill to the ramparts of Castelo São Jorge to take in the panoramic city vistas. Down by the harbour stand tributes to Portugal's maritime heritage – the Moorish watchtowers and exotic sculptures of the UNESCO-listed Belem fortress and the Monument of Discoveries, commemorating the achievements of Vasco da Gama, Magellan, Cabral, Prince Henry the Navigator and other Portuguese heroes. Close by is the fifteenth century Jerónimos Monastery, containing the tombs of Vasco da Gama and poet Luís de Camões.

Similar ground is covered by those opting for a photography-based tour of the city in the company of a local professional photographer who will follow your motorbike and sidecar on his scooter to give advice on capturing the essence of Portuguese life and landscapes. From the city's most spectacular 'miradouros' viewpoints to the tree-lined Avenida da Liberdade, the atmospheric Barrio Alto and the attractions of the old port, this promises to be an exceptional experience. Both tours include a stop to savour traditional Pastéis de Belém custard tarts at Antiga Confeitaria de Belém, where you can take a look at the kitchen dating back to 1837.

Photography Tour of Marrakech

Colourful is a description that applies equally to Marrakech and Mauro Parmesani, the photographic guru who leads this immensely interesting photography tour. Those familiar with magazines such as Architectural Digest, Condé Nast Traveller and Vogue may already be familiar with his work which ranges from high fashion shoots to rugged photojournalism. Mauro will help you discover the most intimate secrets of the city, advising on setting, framing and light as you move through vibrant markets such as the fabric and dyers' souk or the wrought iron and brass souk, taking in the architectural confections of the Ben Youssef Koranic School and Sidi Bel Abbes mosque.

No shoot would be complete without an in-depth nature tour of the Jardins de Majorelle with their Moorish charm and hints of Art Deco. To end the day, Mauro will help you set up your equipment with a view to capturing one of the Red City's most alluring sights – sunset over Jemma El Fna square.

Moroccan Cooking Class

Rich tajines, spicy couscous, sweet and savoury pastilla, b'ssara soup, fish chermoula...the mouth begins to water at the very mention of Moroccan cuisine. Ginger, turmeric, saffron and cinnamon abound, contributing to dishes that are both hearty and exotic, and currently enjoying resurgence among the world's top kitchens. Learn how to create Moroccan cuisine at its best on the acclaimed cookery courses which take place at La Maison Arabe, in the heart of Marrakech's medina.

Following a fascinating introduction into the history of Moroccan cooking and its importance within society you'll get to try your hand at making some of the country's classic signature dishes, including mains, salads, desserts and pastries. A translator is on hand to provide explanations and instructions, and each cooking station has a television monitor to ensure that you don't miss a moment. Naturally, participants get to taste the fruits of their efforts after class.

Truffle Hunting in Istria

King of luxury gastronomy, the truffle is both mysterious and unmistakable. At the right time of year its odour and flavour are intense, marking it out as the must-have ingredient for epicures and gourmets. Finding truffles, however, is no easy task, but you can learn the secret of successful detection on our exclusive Istrian truffle hunt around the village of Livade. Dogs have now largely replaced pigs as the truffle-sniffers of choice, and on this private truffle hunt you will join a hunter and his dog to seek out the precious subterranean fungus. Afterwards you can dine at Restaurant Zigante which specialises in truffle-infused dishes and is owned by Giancarlo Zigante who in 1999 unearthed a Guinness World Record-holding white truffle weighing well over a kilogram.

Greek Island Hopping

This is undoubtedly Aegean island hopping at its most elegant. Crete contrasts glorious beaches with dramatic mountain landscapes, remnants of ancient cultures mixed with upmarket resorts and charming towns. The luxury hotels of Elounda attract discerning clientele with picturesque beaches and views across to the popular day escape of Spinalonga Island. For those who love the great outdoors a visit to Samaria Gorge is a must, with an undeniable raw beauty the gorge runs for sixteen kilometres making it the longest in Europe.

Dream-like Santorini – thought by some to be the real Atlantis – is a place of white-washed villages, blue-domed churches and exclusive cliffside restaurants and hotels. Famed for its multi-hued evening skies as the sun sets beyond the crescent moon of the volcanic caldera. Visit Akrotiri, the Minoan Pompeii to see the remains of a flourishing town buried under ash following a volcanic eruption in 1450BC.

Cosmopolitan and lively, picture-perfect Mykonos is famed for the white-washed windmills which overlook Mykonos Town, and the lively nightlife which centres around the harbour. Meander through a maze of tiny lanes peppered with boutiques, galleries and convivial bars, stopping off in Little Venice where two-storey Venetian houses and trendy cafes line the seafront. Also worth seeing in the town is the church complex of Panagia Paraportiani, located close to the old Venetian castle in Kastro.

A TRADITIONAL WAY OF LIFE CONTRASTS WITH WORLD-CLASS BEACH RESORTS ON AN ISLAND FAMED FOR ITS ARCHAEOLOGICAL TREASURES, LAVISH FOOD AND GOOD WINE.

An island filled with mysticism and legend, Cyprus is the fabled birthplace of Aphrodite, born from the rich foam of the sea. A classic destination for rest and relaxation, the coast calls to sun seekers. Heavenly beaches are backed by rugged mountains, whilst inland traditional villages, medieval castles and impressive ancient sites nestle within verdant landscapes. The remote valleys of the Troodos Mountains beckon, with magnificent frescoed monasteries strung out amongst the pine forests, whilst the Akamas peninsula is splashed with the vibrant colours of orange trees, flowers, fruit and fauna. Village squares are filled with the chattering of exuberant locals; ladies robed in black and groups of men engaged in lively games of cards. The convivial Cypriot spirit comes alive in village 'kafeneia' with generously shared mezes of olives, tzatziki, taramasalata and grilled halloumi. Sublime Mediterranean cuisine is dressed with pungent herbs and spices with lashings of olive oil, all accompanied by the ubiquitous aniseed-flavoured ouzo. Everywhere, the past mingles with the present and a tangible sense of being at the crossroads of east and west pervades. Visit Kourion, where the Greek-Roman temple is built into a bluff overlooking the Mediterranean. Impressive mosaics in the Houses of Dionysus, Theseus, Orpheus and Arion in Paphos relay stories of a colourful past. These living remnants of history inspire the imagination – Aphrodite's spirit is alive and well.

Best Experiences

STEEPED IN MYTHOLOGY AND IMBUED WITH A PEACEFUL PURITY, GREECE COMBINES A MOUNTAINOUS BEAUTY WITH A MYRIAD OF WORLD-CLASS BEACH RESORTS.

Greece is the cradle of Western civilisation, a destination that both stimulates the mind and soothes the senses. The sensuality and serenity of a lifestyle spun out in the warmth of the southern sun pervades. Here, traditions hold firm and the pace of life is slower and unaltered by the pressures of the modern world. From the dramatic lunar beauty of the Cyclades to the pine-covered mountains and sandy beaches of Halkidiki, the sheer geographical variety of the Greek mainland and its infinite scattering of islands is intoxicating. Marvel at the treasures of Athens with its dazzling Acropolis temples of Zeus and Venus, before sailing out to a host of enchanting islands. Mykonos with its colourful harbour; Crete's wildflowers, white-washed villages, dramatic gorges and rugged scenery and in Santorini, blue-domed churches contrast vibrantly against sugar-hued buildings. The clear waters and temptingly quiet coves of the Costa Navarino and Halkidiki are a triumph for families. Everywhere delicious Greek cuisine is to be savoured in convivial style, mezes of feta salads, spicy souvlaki and tangy moist stuffed vine leaves complemented by fish plucked freshly from crystalline seas. Whether in search of the quiet simplicity of village life or the classical elegance of city hotels, each destination has its own separate identity and distinctive spirit. No wonder the Gods of old mythology, so enchanted by what they saw, made Greece their heaven on earth.

Fado music rings out from the open doors of Lisbon's late-night bars evoking a sense of the Portuguese soul. All around are wide, tree-lined avenues enriched by Art Nouveau buildings, mosaic pavements and street cafés infused by an unhurried ambience. A little way along the coast the beach resorts of the Portuguese Riviera sweep into view, while up in the cool hills lies Sintra, a magical place described by Byron as 'a garden of earthly paradise'. Far to the south, the ever popular Algarve attracts sun seekers to its one hundred mile coastline. By the gently shelving beaches, limpid waters wash romantic coves that are ideal for swimming, whilst the ocean is a playground for watersports enthusiasts. Limestone cliffs and natural grottoes form the backdrop for endless family activities, whilst those in search of Portugal's past head for commanding sights such as Sagres fortress – a legacy of an Arabian past. The rich history is reflected in a fusion cuisine that includes spicy chicken piri-piri and salted sardines freshly plucked from the sea, tempered by refreshing rosé wines. Seemingly surging from the Atlantic lies the island of Madeira, a floating garden cradled within a mountainous interior, its landscape a riot of sub-tropical flora; violet protea, orange bird of paradise, and white cala lilies. The capital Funchal is surrounded by lush hills and dramatic shorelines, its vibrant markets overflowing with displays of colour and the air filled with the exotic lilt of the local language.

VAST AND VARIED, TURKEY BOASTS INCREDIBLE LANDSCAPES AND ENDLESS NATURAL WONDERS IN AN EAST-MEETS-WEST LAND BORDERED BY FOUR DIFFERENT SEAS.

Birthplace of many great civilisations, Turkey's history suffuses every aspect of life. Tread in the steps of the Silk Road traders, Julius Caesar, Alexander the Great and the Ottomans to discover a country full of laid-back charm. A violet sky studded with slender minarets and ancient domes forms a beguiling backdrop to Istanbul where Asian mystery fuses with European flair. The two great continents straddle the mighty Bosphorus River, dotted with boats plying the route between East and West.

Former capital of three great empires it is a vibrant city bursting with Byzantine treasures; musts to visit include the Blue Mosque, Topkapi Palace, Hagia Sophia and the breathtaking frescoes of the Chora Museum. Submit to the cool stone and gentle rhythm of splashing water in traditional Turkish baths, and plunge into bazaars redolent with rich spices. Head south to Antalya on the Turkish Riviera for 300 days of sunshine a year, and a myriad of sophisticated resorts. Beyond the beach, the old quarter of Kaleici captivates locals and visitors alike, while in a nearby Roman amphitheatre during June and July the Aspendos Opera and Ballet Festival gets underway. Along the coast, Bodrum beckons with its white-washed houses and riot of bougainvillea, the city's twin bays making it a magnet for yachtsmen, while history aficionados will find Roman Ephesus a revelation. So settle back with a hearty meze and a glass of aniseed raki to savour the many delights of Turkey.

Best Experiences

- * Charter a gulet and explore the coast, stopping in tranquil coves and bays
- * Visit the village of Etrim, known for its intricate hand-knotted carpets
- * Wander through the Grand Bazaar, Turkey's largest covered market and home to over 4000 shops
- * Spend the day in Istanbul's old quarter, exploring the Agia Sofia, Blue Mosque and Topkapi Palace

Turkey is a vast country that incorporates both a Mediterranean and continental climate, the temperatures in the north being cooler than the south. For sightseeing and visits to Istanbul, spring and autumn are recommended to avoid the peak summer temperatures. November to February can be cool with increased rainfall. Southern Turkey has a Mediterranean climate with hot dry summers and mild winters, July and August being the hottest months. Spring and autumn are good times to visit as it is still warm and less crowded.

Our Pricing

Our pricing aims to give an indication of the prices in low and high season. For southern Turkey low season is generally between the months of mid-September to

May, high season runs from mid-June to mid-September. In Istanbul low season is generally between November to March, high season runs from April to October. Prices are based on 2 sharing (unless otherwise indicated) and include return economy flights from London. Regional departures, child prices and single supplements are available on request.

Croatia & Montenegro /

STEP BACK INTO HISTORY-STEEPED CITIES AND SLEEPY VILLAGES WHERE LIFE CONTINUES MUCH AS IT DID A CENTURY AGO, THE GLITTERING ADRIATIC BECKONING ALONG THE DRAMATIC COAST.

Here life moves at an unhurried pace – the warm, dry Mediterranean summers beckoning visitors to over five thousand kilometres of coastline. In Dubrovnik orange-hued roofs are enlivened by the sun's rays, which contrast vibrantly against the azure waters of the Adriatic. Encircled in its medieval limestone walls which surge dramatically from the sea, labyrinthine alleys and piazzas are alive with the buzz of outdoor life. Cosmopolitan cafés spill out onto the pavements of Placa Street, where glasses of the local plum brandy flow. Step into Diocletian's Palace the living heart of Split and experience Dalmatian life as it is really lived amidst the atmospheric old walls. Sail over to Korčula – reputed birthplace of Marco Polo – to discover secluded bays and wander medieval streets brimming with folkloric tradition. Further south, along the dramatically crafted coastline of rugged inlets and verdant islands lapped by the purest waters, lies Montenegro. Pink sands envelop the islet of Sveti Stefan, once the favoured playground of the Hollywood glitterati and now revitalised once again as a luxurious retreat. In Istria discover a haven of visual and epicurean delight – medieval hilltop villages perch above expansive olive groves; the cuisine, with its prosciutto hams and white truffles, more than a little influenced by its Italian neighbours.

Best Experiences

- * Enjoy a private dinner in the substructure of Diocletian's Palace in Split
- * Take a leisurely walk around the spectacular city walls in Dubrovnik, or for a different perspective take the cable car up to Mount Srđ for a bird's eye view of this ancient city
- * With over a thousand islands, Croatia is the ideal destination to charter a private yacht and explore
- * Discover the labyrinthine of alleyways in the medieval town of Kotor which is located on one of the most beautiful bays in Montenegro

When To Go

The coastal regions of both countries enjoy a typically Mediterranean climate with hot, dry summers and cold winters. The height of summer in July and August can be hot with moderate humidity. May, June and September are often the best times to visit when sunshine is plentiful and to avoid the crowds. Winters on the coast are mild with increased rainfall.

Our Pricing

Our pricing aims to give an indication of the prices in low and high season. Low season for Croatia and Montenegro is generally between the months of October to March, high season runs from June to September. Prices are based on 2 sharing (unless otherwise indicated) and include return economy flights from London. Regional departures, child prices and single supplements are available on request.

Set on a rocky outcrop above the Adriatic, this famous villa proffers sublime views of the nearby old city of Dubrovnik. Relax into your luxury residence – some with Jacuzzi – to enjoy magical views over Lokrum and the Old City walls from your private terrace. In the lush gardens, Villa Kolin boasts two penthouse suites with their own entrances. Croatia's rich culinary heritage can be savoured at the Restaurant Pjerin above the sea or relax with a coffee or light lunch at the Al Fresco Bar Giardino. For prosciutto washed down with fine wines and cocktails, head up to the rooftop retreat. Swim in the indoor/outdoor pool, lie back on sunbeds with waiter service or on the hotel's own secluded pebble stone beach, or indulge in a range of innovative treatments at the Villa Spa. The Old Town is a pleasant fifteen minute walk; alternatively there are complimentary transfers aboard a traditional Venetian vaporetto, also available for seasonal hire should you wish to explore the local beaches and islands.

Morocco /

IMMERSE YOURSELF IN THE CULTURE OF THIS BEGUILING COUNTRY, FROM THE CLAMOUR OF MARRAKECH AND ITS BUSTLING SOUKS TO THE BEAUTY OF THE REMOTE ATLAS MOUNTAINS.

The exoticism of Arabia melds with the vibrancy of Africa in Morocco, ancient land of the Berbers. As dusk falls in Marrakech, dancers in traditional costumes and halqa acrobats stir up the still night air. Storytellers recall ancient tales and snake charmers mesmerise onlookers under the glow of kerosene lamps. In the ochre-hued medina, jostle alongside carts and laden mules in a labyrinth of winding derbs. Hawkers trade vast piles of spices in the souks in a vibrantly aromatic scene of red paprika, beige cumin, yellow turmeric and green aniseed. Mint tea is proffered and poured during negotiations, the constant accompaniment to life and daily business. Evocative and exotic, Jemaa el Fna square is a mystical place, transformed each evening into an alfresco kitchen, the ambience aromatised by the scents of tagines of chicken, lamb and couscous sweetened by apricots. Each morning, the sound of 'muezzin' calling the faithful to prayer echoes across the city. Throughout Morocco a sense of mysticism pervades, its contrasting landscapes embracing the snow-capped peaks of the Atlas Mountains, the unmapped sands of the Sahara Desert and vibrant cities where deeply traditional cultures assure an unforgettable experience. Trek through tiny Berber villages or travel north to the coastal nirvana of Oualidia, cooled by the Atlantic breeze and haven for migratory birds.

Best Experiences

- * Enjoy a tour of the medina with a local architect who gives a fascinating insight into this remarkable city
- * Test your haggling skills in the souks
- * Wander around Jemaa el Fna, filled with snake charmers, musicians and acrobats, at night the square is transformed into one of the world's largest open air eateries
- * Enjoy a Moroccan cooking class
- * Trek, horse ride or mountain bike in the Atlas Mountains

When To Go

Morocco has a warm, dry continental climate, making it a year-round destination. Whilst hot in July and August, winters are mild. The best times to visit are October through to May.

Our Pricing

Our pricing aims to give an indication of the prices in low and high season. Low season for Morocco is generally between the months of June to August, high season runs from September to March. Prices are based on 2 sharing (unless otherwise indicated) and include return economy flights from London. Regional departures, child prices and single supplements are available on request.

With a name that means 'soft breeze' in Berber, this ravishing retreat in the Atlas foothills transcends the merely luxurious. A forty five minute drive from Marrakech, Sir Richard Branson's hotel lies in extensive grounds brimming with a lush variety of fruit trees, cacti and rambling roses – hidden staircases and courtyards appearing at almost every turn. Inside, eighteen antique-adorned rooms and suites marry traditional Moroccan colours and textures with more modern architectural notes. For added indulgence, nine spectacular Berber Tented Suites are perched on the hillside, five with private Jacuzzi. In the Kanoun restaurant local produce and spices blend to create exquisite Moroccan and international dishes, whilst cooking lessons can be enjoyed on the rooftop terrace accompanied by dramatic views. A deep blue reflecting pool and restful library enhance the tranquil ambience.

Relaxation choices are many. Retreat to the Asounfou Spa with hamman and indoor pool for indulgent cossetting, whilst outside lies an infinity-edge pool and Jacuzzi with views to valley and mountain. Meander the pretty garden paths to the tennis courts or explore the breathtaking surroundings on foot or by mule. Take an excursion to the Tin Mal Mosque followed by mint tea with a Berber family in the village of Ouirgane.

Booking Conditions

The holidays featured in this brochure are operated by Carrier Ltd of No 1 Lakeside, Cheadle, Cheshire, SK8 3GW, Company no. 02671002 (“Carrier”, “we”, “us” and “our”). All bookings are subject to our full booking conditions and Essential Holiday Information which appear on our website www.carrier.co.uk. A copy of these can also be e-mailed or posted to you on request. By asking us to make your booking, you confirm you have had access to and agree to the full booking conditions which you should read. In these conditions, “you” and “your” means all persons named on the booking or any of them, as the context requires and “lead name” means the person who makes the booking.

MAKING A BOOKING AND PAYING FOR YOUR HOLIDAY

To confirm a holiday booking you must pay a deposit of £250 per person or 10% of the total holiday cost, whichever is the greater, or any applicable higher deposit. If you book 70 days or less prior to departure, full payment is due at the time of booking. After your booking is taken, a confirmation invoice will be sent to you. A contract between us will come into existence when this invoice is issued. Full payment must be received not less than 70 days before departure. We accept various methods of payment, however please note that if you choose to pay by credit card, there will be a charge levied. If you do not pay in full by the due date, cancellation charges as shown in our full booking conditions will be payable. Any money paid by you to one of our authorised travel agents for holiday arrangements which do not include flights arranged by us is held by the agent on our behalf. For flight inclusive bookings, all monies paid to an authorised travel agent for your holiday with us will be held on behalf of and for the benefit of the Trustees of the Air Travel Trust subject to the travel agent's obligation to pay such monies to us in accordance with our trading terms unless we fail. In the unlikely event of our financial failure, all monies then held by or subsequently paid to the travel agent for your holiday will be held by the agent on behalf of and for the benefit of the Trustees of the Air Travel Trust without any obligation on the agent to pay such monies to us.

FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND ABTA

We hold an Air Travel Organiser's Licence (ATOL number 2968). When you buy an ATOL protected flight or flight inclusive holiday from us, you will receive an ATOL Certificate. This lists what is financially protected, where you can get information on what this means for you and who to contact if things go wrong. We, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL Certificate, will provide you with the services listed on the ATOL Certificate (or a suitable alternative). In some cases, where neither we nor the supplier are able to do so for reasons of insolvency, an alternative ATOL holder may provide you with the services you have bought or a suitable alternative (at no extra cost to you). You agree to accept that in those circumstances the alternative ATOL holder will perform those obligations and you agree to pay any money outstanding to be paid by you under your contract to that alternative ATOL holder. However, you also agree that in some cases it will not be possible to appoint an alternative ATOL holder, in which case you will be entitled to make a claim under the ATOL scheme (or your credit card issuer where applicable). If we, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL certificate, are unable to provide the services listed (or a suitable alternative, through an alternative ATOL holder or otherwise) for reasons of insolvency, the Trustees of the Air Travel Trust may make a payment to (or confer a benefit on) you under the ATOL scheme. You agree that in return for such a payment or benefit you assign absolutely to those Trustees any claims which you have or may have arising out of or relating to the non-provision of the services, including any claim against us, the travel agent (or your credit card issuer where applicable). You also agree that any such claims may be re-assigned to another body, if that other body has paid sums you have claimed under the ATOL scheme. For further information, visit the ATOL website at www.atol.org.uk.

We are a member of ABTA (ABTA number V0391). If you book a combination of services (for example, accommodation and car hire) for your holiday with us at the same time as part of the same booking which does not include flights, ABTA will financially protect your holiday in the same way except that, if already abroad, you will be returned to the point where your contracted arrangements with us commenced. Please go to www.abta.com for a copy of the guide to ABTA's scheme of Financial Protection.

ABTA and ABTA members help holidaymakers to get the most from their travel and assist them when things do not go according to plan. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. For further information about ABTA, the Code of Conduct and the arbitration scheme available to you if you have a complaint contact ABTA at 30 Park Street, London, SE1 9EQ or see www.abta.com

PRICES AND YOUR INVOICE

Before confirmation, we reserve the right to change our prices or any brochure information. Pricing errors sometimes occur. If we become aware of any error, we will endeavour to notify you at the time of booking (if we are then aware of the mistake) or within 7 days of the time of booking, or as soon as reasonably possible. We must reserve the right to cancel the booking if you do not wish to accept the price which is actually applicable to the holiday in which case, you will be given the choice to amend your booking to an alternative holiday, at the correct price. It is important to check your invoice as soon as you receive it. In the event of any discrepancy please contact us or your travel agent immediately. We regret we cannot accept any liability if we are not notified of any inaccuracies (for which we are responsible) in any document within 10 days of our sending it out (5 days for tickets). We will do our best to rectify any mistake notified to us outside these time limits but you must meet any costs involved in doing so.

OUT OF DATE-RANGE FLIGHTS

Please see our full booking conditions for terms applicable to holidays including flights which are out of date range and therefore not available to book when the booking is made. A contract between us will then come into existence on the basis that the price payable will be that applicable when the airline releases the seats and the timings and other flight details will be those confirmed at that time which may be different to those advised at the time of booking.

OUR PRICE GUARANTEE

All prices quoted in this brochure are calculated on the basis of known costs on 20 October 2016 and exchange rates as published in the Financial Times of 20 October 2016. Once you have accepted the price advised at the time of booking and we have issued a confirmation invoice, that price is fully guaranteed and will not be subject to any surcharges.

HOLIDAY INSURANCE

It is a requirement of booking that you hold adequate travel insurance which is suitable for your particular needs.

TRAVEL INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS

Approximately 7 days before departure you will receive your flight/ e-ticket together with an itinerary. Please ensure that you check the flight timings on your tickets carefully. The correct timings, using the 24-hour clock system, may have been adjusted since we published the brochure or you received your invoice.

CHANGES TO YOUR HOLIDAY

Requests for changes must be made in writing by the lead name and, where these can be made, will be subject to the charges shown in our full booking conditions.

TRANSFERRING BOOKINGS

If you are prevented from travelling, you may transfer the place on the booking to someone else, subject to the conditions and charges set out in the full booking conditions.

CANCELLING YOUR HOLIDAY

Cancellations must be notified by the lead name. Any notification by telephone must also be confirmed in writing or by e-mail within 24 hours by the lead name. Cancellation will take effect from the working day we receive your notification provided that written confirmation of any telephone cancellation is received by us within 24 hours of the original notification. Cancellation charges will then be payable as shown in our full booking conditions.

DELAY AND DENIED BOARDING REGULATIONS

In the event of any flight delay or cancellation at your UK or overseas point of departure, the airline is responsible for providing such assistance as is legally required by the Denied Boarding Regulations (see below). The ferry, tunnel or rail operator is similarly responsible in relation to any delayed or cancelled sea crossing or international rail departure. Except where otherwise stated in our brochure or on our website, we regret we cannot provide any assistance in such circumstances other than information and advice to the extent we are in a position to do so.

FLIGHT CHANGES

The flight timings shown in our brochure, on our website and/or detailed on your confirmation invoice are for guidance only and are subject to alteration and confirmation. Flight timings are outside our control. They are set by airlines and are subject to various factors. We will advise you of any significant change as soon as we are informed by the airline. Minor timing changes will be shown on the flight tickets. Should the changes involve a material reduction of your holiday duration, we will offer you a refund of any applicable costs. Any change in the identity of the airline, flight timings and/or aircraft type (if advised) will not entitle you to cancel or change to other arrangements without paying our normal charges except where specified in these conditions.

IF WE CHANGE OR CANCEL YOUR HOLIDAY

We reserve the right to make changes to and cancel confirmed holidays. Most changes are minor but may occasionally be significant. Examples of significant changes are shown in our full booking conditions. Some of our holidays require a minimum number of participants to enable us to operate them; if the minimum number is not reached, we are entitled to cancel. We will notify you or your travel agent of cancellation for this reason no later than 70 days prior to departure.

If we have to make a significant change or cancel, we will tell you as soon as possible. If there is time to do so before departure, we will offer you the choice of (a) accepting the changed arrangements; or (b) purchasing an alternative holiday from us (paying or receiving a refund in respect of any price difference); or (c) cancelling or accepting the cancellation in which case you will receive a full and quick refund of all monies you have paid to us.

If we have to make a significant change or cancel we will, where compensation is appropriate, pay you the compensation payments shown in our full booking conditions depending on the circumstances and when the significant change or cancellation is notified to you subject to the following exceptions. Compensation will not be payable and no liability beyond offering the above mentioned choices can be accepted where (1) we are forced to make a change or cancel as a result of unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control, the consequences of which we could not have avoided even with all due care or (2) we have to cancel because the minimum number of bookings necessary for us to operate your holiday has not been reached (see above). Other exceptions apply as referred to in our full booking conditions.

FORCE MAJEURE

Except where otherwise expressly stated in these booking conditions, we regret we cannot accept liability or pay any compensation where the performance or prompt performance of our obligations under our contract with you is prevented or affected by or you otherwise suffer any damage, loss or expense of any nature as a result of "force majeure". In these booking conditions, "force majeure" means any event which we or the supplier of the service(s) in question could not, even with all due care, foresee or avoid. Such events are likely to include (whether actual or threatened) war, riot, civil strife, terrorist activity, industrial dispute, natural or nuclear disaster, adverse weather conditions, fire, closure, restriction or congestion of airspace, airports and ports and all other events outside our control. Force majeure also includes the UK Foreign Office advising against all travel or all but essential travel to any country, region or destination.

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU FOR YOUR HOLIDAY ARRANGEMENTS

(a) We promise to make sure that the holiday arrangements we have agreed to make, perform or provide as applicable as part of our contract with you are made, performed or provided with reasonable skill and care. This means that, subject to these booking conditions, we will accept responsibility if, for example, you suffer death or personal injury or your contracted holiday arrangements are not provided as promised or prove deficient as a result of the failure of ourselves, our employees, agents or suppliers to use reasonable skill and care in making, performing or providing, as applicable, your contracted holiday arrangements. It is your responsibility to show that reasonable skill and care has not been used if you wish to make a claim against us. We will only be responsible for what our employees, agents and suppliers do or do not do if they were at the time acting within the course of their employment (for employees) or carrying out work we had asked them to do (for agents and suppliers).

(b) We will not be responsible for any injury, illness, death, loss (including without limitation, loss of enjoyment or possessions), damage, expense, cost or other sum or claim of any description whatsoever which results from any of the following: - the act(s) and/or omission(s) of the person(s) affected or any member(s) of their party or the act(s) and/or omission(s) of a third party not connected with the provision of your holiday and which were unforeseeable or unavoidable or 'force majeure' as defined above.

(c) For claims which do not involve personal injury, illness or death, the most we will have to pay if we are liable to you is twice the price the person affected paid for their holiday (not including insurance premiums and amendment charges). We will only have to pay this maximum amount if everything has gone wrong and you have received no benefit from your holiday. Where enjoyment of only some days has been affected, we will refund reasonable related expenses and pay a daily sum of compensation up to £50 per day per person affected.

(d) Subject to (b) above, if you are killed, injured or become ill during or as a result of, carriage (including the process of getting on and/or off the transport concerned) by aircraft, ship or train forming part of the holiday arrangements booked before departure from the UK and to which any international convention or EU regulation applies, our liability (including the maximum amount of compensation we will have to pay you, the types of claim and the circumstances in which compensation will be payable) will be limited as if we were the carrier in question. The most we will have to pay you for that claim or that part of a claim if we are found liable to you on any basis is the most the carrier concerned would have to pay under the international convention or EU regulation which applies to the travel arrangements in question (for example, the Warsaw Convention as amended or unamended and the Montreal Convention for international travel by air and/or for airlines with an operating licence granted by an EU country, the EC Regulation on Air Carrier Liability No 889/2002 for national and international travel by air, the Athens Convention (as amended by the 2002 protocol where applicable) and EC Regulation 392/2009 for travel by sea and COTIF, the Convention on International Travel by Rail). Where a carrier would not be obliged to make any payment to you under the applicable international convention or EU regulation in respect of a claim or part of a claim, we similarly are not obliged to make a payment to you for that claim or part of the claim. When making any payment, we are entitled to deduct any money which you have received or are entitled to receive from the carrier for the claim in question. Copies of the applicable international conventions and EU regulations are available from us on request.

(e) Please note, we cannot accept responsibility for any services which do not form part of our contract. This includes, for example, any additional services or facilities which your hotel or any other supplier agrees to provide for you where the services or facilities are not advertised by us as forming part of your holiday and we have not agreed to arrange them as part of our contract and any excursion you purchase in resort. In addition, regardless of any wording used by us on our website, in any advertising material or elsewhere, we only promise to use reasonable skill and care as set out above and we do not have any greater or different liability to you.

(f) Our suppliers (such as airlines, accommodation or transport providers) have their own booking conditions or conditions of carriage, and these conditions are binding between you and the supplier. Some of these conditions may limit or remove the relevant transport provider's or other supplier's liability to you. You can get copies of such conditions from our offices, or the offices of the relevant supplier.

(g) Operational decisions may be taken by air carriers and airports resulting in delays, diversions or rescheduling. Carrier has no control over such decisions, and is therefore unable to accept responsibility for them. Where, as a result of force majeure we are obliged to change or end your holiday after departure, but before the end of your holiday (which we must reserve the right to do), we will not pay compensation or refunds (unless and to the extent that any refunds are obtained from suppliers) or reimburse you for expenses incurred. You should have adequate travel insurance for your holiday and claim via your insurance company for any loss or damage to luggage and/or personal possessions or for any expenses incurred. In the event that any claim is made directly with us, our liability to pay compensation and/or the amount of compensation will be limited in accordance with the conventions referred to in (d) where applicable.

EXPERIENCES FORMING PART OF YOUR HOLIDAY

Please see our full booking conditions for applicable terms.

LOCALLY BOOKED EXCURSIONS/ACTIVITIES AND EXPERIENCES NOT FORMING PART OF YOUR HOLIDAY

Whilst on holiday, you may be offered the opportunity to buy optional excursions and activities. Your contract for these will be with the local provider and will be subject to the provider's terms and conditions, some of which may exclude or limit its liability to you, and will be governed by local law and jurisdiction. We accept no liability for any breach of contract or negligent act or omission of any provider. Some excursions/activities may contain an element of risk or require a good level of physical fitness. If in doubt, you should make direct inquiries with the local provider before deciding to buy, and check that you are covered by your travel insurance policy.

IF YOU HAVE A COMPLAINT

If you have cause for complaint whilst on holiday, you must bring it to the attention of our local representative and/or the supplier (eg hotel manager) immediately, or call the emergency contact number provided in your travel documents. They will do their best to rectify the situation.

If you do not raise concerns immediately, this may affect our ability to investigate and take remedial action and it may impact on the way your complaint is dealt with. If you remain dissatisfied, you should send us a complaint in writing within 28 days of the completion of the holiday. Please remember to quote your holiday booking number and daytime telephone number.

If your complaint cannot be resolved, you may use the ABTA arbitration scheme which is summarised in our full booking conditions. Full details are available on request or from www.abta.com

LAW AND JURISDICTION

We both agree that English law (and no other) will apply to your contract and to any dispute, claim or other matter of any description which arises between us ("claim") (except as set out below). We both also agree that any claim (and whether or not involving any personal injury) must be dealt with under the ABTA arbitration scheme (if the scheme is available for the claim in question and you wish to use it – see above) or by the Courts of England and Wales only unless, in the case of Court proceedings, you live in Scotland or Northern Ireland. In this case, proceedings must either be brought in the Courts of your home country or those of England and Wales. If proceedings are brought in Scotland or Northern Ireland, you may choose to have your contract and claim governed by the law of Scotland/Northern Ireland as applicable (but if you do not so choose, English law will apply).

DATA PROTECTION POLICY

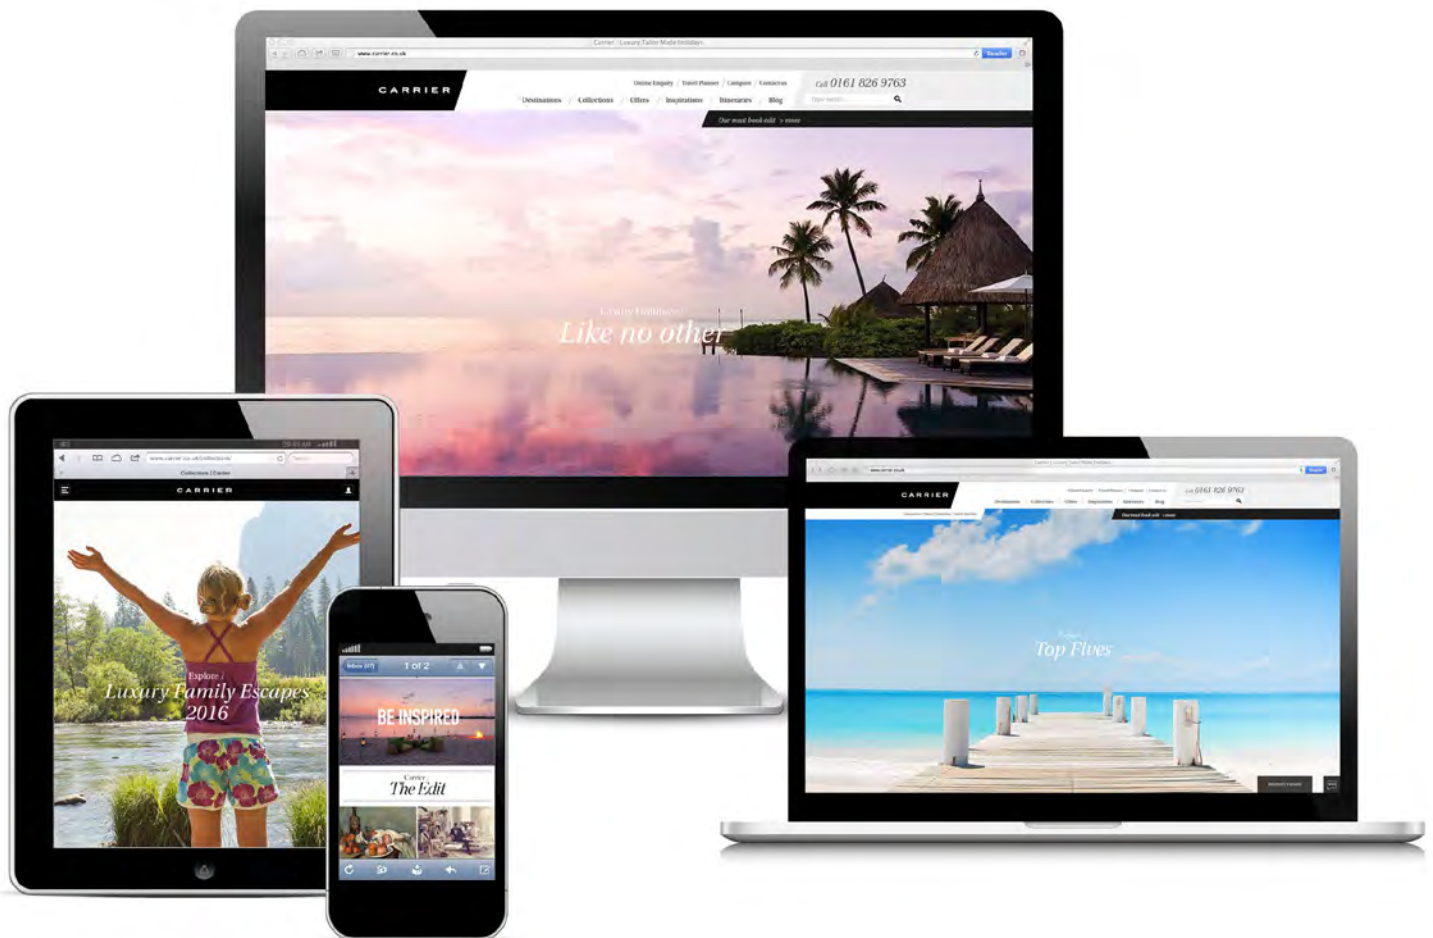

For the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998, we are a data controller. Our full Data Protection Policy appears on our website and the following is a summary only. Appropriate personal data will be passed on to the relevant suppliers and any other third party who need to know it so that your holiday can be provided. The information may also be provided to government / public authorities such as customs, immigration and the security services or as required by law. We may disclose personal data to companies in the Kuoni Group. Other than in relation to government / public authorities, we will take appropriate steps which are intended to ensure that anyone to whom we pass your personal data for any reason agrees to keep it secure and only uses it for the purposes of providing their services. If we cannot pass on personal data, we will be unable to fulfil your booking. In making your booking, you consent to personal data being passed on to the relevant suppliers and other third parties. We take appropriate technical and organisational measures which are intended to prevent unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data and accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal data. Your personal data may be stored, used and otherwise processed within the UK and/or any other country(ies) of the European Economic Area (EEA). We may also store, use or otherwise process personal data outside the EEA. Data protection laws may not be as strong outside the EEA as they are in the EEA. We would also like to store and use your personal data for future marketing purposes unless you have told us that you do not wish us to do so. If you do not wish to receive future marketing material, please write to us or e-mail aspects@carrier.co.uk.
